“Curbside Consultations” with Two Psychiatrists and a Psychologist

The Berks County Bar Association is pleased to announce an increased benefit of membership. Larry A. Rotenberg, M D, FAPA, a board-certified psychiatrist, and Robin Altman, M.D., a board-certified child, adolescent and adult psychiatrist, will now be joined by David O’Connell, Ph.D., a psychologist. The next session will be held September 18, 2019 at the Bar Building from 12:30 to 2:00 PM. (Note that these consultations will be on the first and third Wednesdays, unless otherwise noted). Members may discuss with them cases involving mental injuries and whether a forensic psychiatric evaluation would be appropriate. Mental health issues in general may also be discussed. The consultation at the Bar Building is at no charge to the member. We appreciate Drs. Rotenberg, Altman and O’Connell giving their time in this manner. Please call the Bar Association at (610) 375-4591 to schedule a thirty minute session during the time they are curbside. Appointments are required.

Estate and financial advisors:

1. Do you have clients who care deeply about Berks County?
2. Do they give to more than one charitable cause?
3. Are they interested in creating a legacy?
4. Are they considering creating a private foundation?
5. Do they want to receive maximum tax benefit for their charitable contributions?
6. Do they place a priority on sound financial management of their contributions?

If you answered yes, your clients would benefit from giving through Berks County Community Foundation.

The Pennsylvania Bar Association Wants You To Be a Published Author

The PBA welcomes submission of articles for its scholarly journal, the Pennsylvania Bar Association Quarterly. The Quarterly publishes articles of analysis and opinion written by licensed attorneys regarding substantive legal issues and developments. Articles generally run about 5,000 words and should be well researched and documented. Writer Guidelines are available on the PBA's website. Queries and manuscripts should be addressed to our editor, Prof. Robert Rains, The Pennsylvania State University Dickinson School of Law, Carlisle, at:
